OUR FOUNDER

MOTHER THATIPATHRI GNANAMMA (1819-1874)

THE PATRON OF THE SCHOOL

SAINT THATIPATHRI GNANAMMA (1822-1874)

The Congregation of Sisters of St. Anne-Madras was founded by a lay woman namely Thatipathri Gnanamma. She was born in 1822 at Pirangipuram in Guntur District in the State of Andhra Pradesh, India, as the second child of Gali Rayanna and Mariamma. A pious devout couple. Gnanamma was deeply prayerful and grew to become a pure, Humble and simple young girl embedded with the virtues of charity, piety, generosity, sacrifice and hard work, the rich values practiced by her parents. In 1837, young Gnanamma was given in marriage to Innaiah, then catechist of Phirangipuram. The pious couple Innaiah and Gnanamma had five sons and curiously they had no daughters, for providence had reserved thousands of girls to be adopted by Gnanamma in the later days.

Widowhood came as a storm in her life at the age of 37. Freed at last from all family commitments, Gnanamma moved to a village called Kilacheri, 40 kms from Chennai and settled down there. Thus, the infinite wisdom of God led her step to Kilacheri the cradle, the very Bethlehem of the new Congregation.

During her time, the education of young girls was an impossible dream. Fr. Arokianathar, the parish priest of Kilacheri, helped her to reflect concretely and starting a school at Kilacheri for girls. In 1862, she sold all her properties to meet the expenses for starting a school at Kilacheri. She started a school exclusively for girls in 1863.

In 1871, the two young women, requested Gnanamma to let them help in her work and expressed their desire to do so as nuns. Fr. Arokianathar trained them under the Sisters of Congregation of Good Shepherd at St. Anne's Novitiate, Bellary. The specific vision for the betterment of women known as "Society of the Sisters of St. Anne – Madras" was born. This was the seed that was sown for the two future religious congregations for women initiated by Gnanamma.

Gnanamma was suffering from asthma, feeling that her end was drawing near, she called all her spiritual daughters and gave them her last instructions. She received the last sacraments from the hands of Fr. Rathna Nathar and went to her eternal reward on 21st December 1874 in the age of 52. She is the Foundress of two Congregations, namely, St. Anne's of Madras and St. Anne's Phirangipuram.

On September 21, 2013 Rev Dr. Goerge Antonysamy raised her as Saint; on January 21, 2014 the Holy See declared Thatipathri Gnanamma Innaiah as servant of God. Let us continue to pray for this special intention.

HISTORY OF THE CONGREGATION

The origin of our Congregation is tracked back to 19th Century in the state of Tamil Nadu, India. It was founded by Thatipathri Gnanamma, a lay woman from Phirangipuram, Guntur District, Andhra Pradesh.

Our Congregation was raised to the Pontifical status on 6th December 1979 by Pope John Paul II. The Generalate is located in Madawaram – Chennai. In 1987, Our Congregation was divided into three administrative regional units with separate head quarters in Bangalore, Chennai and Tanjore.

Today, there a number of challenges that perpetuate sadly the marginalization of certain Segments the population. We, the followers of Gnanamma, address these issues through Various specific services”.

As our predecessors were true to the vision of our Foundress by opening schools in Remote Villages to educate the girls. We have opened health centres, homes for Children, Widows, the handicapped and the aged as well as social work centres in remote villages and tribal areas to work for the liberation. We cross borders create new boundaries and take up any mission that serves the poorest of the poor.

The journey which Gnanamma took in 1874 with two young professed sisters, has reached the state where we are today. We March on with great vigour reaching out to the people who are on the periphery. We are confident that the strong vibrations of our Foundress will continue to illuminate, guide, protect, preserve, increase and strengthen us in our journey of religious life and committed missions towards a just and equal society. At present, the numerical strength of our Congregation is 617 with 134 houses in 43 Dioceses.

Beatified, Blessed Thatipathiri Gnanamma’s Feast Day is celebrated as St. Anne’s Feast Day in 26th July.

GITANJALI

Where the mind is without fear and the head is held high:
Where Knowledge is free
Where the world has not been broken up into fragments by narrow domestic walls
Where words come out from the depth of truth
Where tireless striving stretches its arms towards perfection
Where the clear stream of reason has not lost its way into the dreary desert sand of dead habit
Where the mind is led forward by thee into ever widening thought and action
Into that Heaven of freedom, my Father,
let my country, awake

(Rabindranath Tagore)

THIS IS MY PRAYER

This is my prayer to Thee my lord
Strike Strike at the root of
Penury in my heart

Give me the strength
Lightly to bear my joys and sorrows

Give me the strength
To make my love fruitful in service.

Give me the strength
Never to disown the poor or
Bend my knees before
Insolent might

Give me the strength to raise my mind
High above daily trifles

Give me the strength to surrender my strength To thy will with love.

- Gitanjali no. 36
- Rabindranath Tagore...

for which we ardently implore you. (Mention your request)
Take from us
all afflictions and despair

TWENTY COURTESY POINTS

INTRODUCTION

We are judged by strangers, based on, our behavior, politeness and good manners. They make a favourable impression, about us if we behave badly in public we not only let ourselves down, but also our parents, our teachers and our school. By trying to control ourselves in speech and actions we shall build up a good standard of behaviour. In time if we persevere, our efforts will become habits so that we maintain them always. Then we can truly say that we are well – mannered. The following “Courtesy points” will help us in our effort.

1. All the Students in class should stand when a visitor enters the room. They should remain standing unless or until told to sit. They should stand again when the visitor leaves
2. Students, wishing to enter the class room, when the teacher is in the room, should wait outside the door for permission to enter.
3. Always stand smartly in attention when spoken to by a teacher or by elders. Donot lunge with hands in the pockets etc.
4. Treat old people with respect and help them whenever they are in need.
5. It would be courteous to say, ‘may I help you’ to any stranger in the school building, who obviously does not know the way round or needs some help.
6. Always stand aside, and let the elders have the way.
7. If a teacher or any adult anything, politely pick it up and give it to the person.
8. If you are seated in a crowded bus and an old person gets in and finds no vacant seat, stand up politely and offer yours.
9. Students should greet with respect teachers and adults known to them either with both hands (Namasthe) or with the right hand(salute).
10. When greet people it is better to say ‘Good morning’, ‘Good afternoon’, etc., than ‘Hello’.

11. If you have to pass close in front of any one always say 'Excuse me'.
12. When speaking to visitors in school, address a lady as 'Madam' and a gentleman as 'Sir'.
13. Chewing (gum, sweets, etc.,) in public is not polite and is forbidden in the class-room.
14. Cultivate the habit of quietness, controlled movement and speech.
15. If you do not properly hear what was said to you, say, 'I beg your pardon'.
16. Say, 'Thank you' for any service rendered to you.
17. Do not talk in the library; consultations, if any, should be in whisper.
18. In the class or in hall when the teacher or a speaker is taking the class or to the Assembly, keep silent.
19. If you cough or sneeze in public, must do it quietly into a hand kerchief, but refrain from doing it, if possible.
20. Final Note: The proof of genuine good manners is the constant practice of all the courtesy points in a natural, effortless and unobtrusive way.

Mercy drops round us are falling
But for the showers we plead

There shall be showers of blessing
Precious reviving again;
Over the hills and the valleys
Sound of abundance of rain.

There shall be showers of blessings
Send them upon us O Lord
Grant to us now a refreshing
Come and now honour thy word.

Now as to God we're confessing,

Now as on Jesus we call.

BIND US TOGETHER

Bind us together, Lord, bind us together
With cords that cannot be broken
Bind us together, lord (2)
Bind us together in love.
There is only one God, there is only one king
There is only one body, that is why we sing.

JUST LIKE A CHILD

Just like a child who trusts his father dear,
And who delights to feel his presence near.
Just like a child whose mind has not a doubt
And whose heart is never proud.
    Here I come, O Lord
    Here I come, Just like a child
    Here I come, O Lord
    Here I come, Just like a child
Just Like a child so weak he cannot stand
But who holds firm and tight his mother's hand
Fearing not the long dark night.

WE ARE GATHERING

1. We are gathering together unto him
    We are gathering together unto him
    Unto him shall the gathering of the people be,
    We are gathering to gathering unto him.
2. Singing    3. Offering    4. Praying.

THERE ARE NUMEROUS STRINGS

Ref: There are numerous strings in your lute,
    Let me add own among them.

1. Then when you smite your chords,
    My heart will break its silence,
    and my heart will be one with your song.
2. Amidst your numberless stars,
    Let me place my own little lamp.
3. In the dance your festival of lights,
    My hearts will throb and
    My life will be one with your smile.

PRAYER FOR PEACE

Lord make me an instrument of your peace
Where there is hatred, let me sow love;
Where there is injury, pardon
Where there is doubt, faith;
Where there is despair, hope,
Where there is darkness, light;
Where there is sadness, joy.

O Divine Master! Grant that I may not
So much seek to be consoled, as to console
To be understood as to understand;
To be loved as to love;
For it is in giving that we receive,
It is in pardoning that we are receive
It is in pardoning that we are pardoned,
And it is in dying that we are born to eternal life.

- St. Francis of Assisi

THIS IS MY PRAYER

This is my prayer to thee, my Lord – Strike,
Strike at the root of penury in my hearts,
Give me the strength lightly to bear my joys and sorrows,
Give me the strength to make my love fruitful in service,
Give me the strength never to disown the Poor and bend my knees before insolent Might,
Give me the strength to raise my mind high above daily trifles,
And give me the strength to surrender my
Strength to Thy will with love.

ALL THINGS BRIGHT AND BEAUTIFUL

All Things bright and beautiful
All creatures great and small
All things wise and wonderful,
The good God made them all,

1. Each little flower that opens
Each little bird that sings,
He made their glowing colours,
He made their tiny wings.
2. The purple headed mountains,
The river running by,
The sunset and the morning

That brightens up the sky.

3. The cold wind in the winter,
The pleasant summer sun,
The ripe fruits in the country,
He made them everyone.
4. He gave us eyes to see them, and lips that we might tell
How great is God Almighty
Who has made all things well.

GOD STILL LOVES THE WORLD

Every tiny star that twinkles in the night sky.
Every drop of morning dew,
Every spark of fire blazing in the furnace
Every captivating view,
Every rainbow in the sky, every pretty butterfly
Tells the fascinating news to those who dare to hope;

And the message is:
God still loves the world!
God still, still love the world,
So throw your life into His hands,
Day by day discern His plans:
God is passionately busy loving you and me

Every ocean wave the breaks upon the sea-shore,
Every stalk of golden wheat,
Every silver stream that – gushes down the mountain
Every drop of honey sweet,
Every eagle flying high, every worm that wriggles by

Every man and woman pledged in love forever,
Every little new born child
Every voice in favour of a needy neighbor,
Every radiating smile,
Every hand that offers love, every surging
Flow of blood.....

AVE MARIA

Ave Maria, Gratia Plena
Dominus Tecum, Benedicta tu

(1)

As I kneel before you
As I bow my head in prayer

Take this day, make it yours
And fill with your love

All I have I give you,
Every dream and wish are yours
Mother of Christ, Mother of Mine, present them to my Lord.

(3)

As I kneel before you,
And see your smiling face,
Every thought, every word,
Is lost in your embrace

READING TO REMEMBER

1. The best way to begin any reading assignment is to skim the pages to get an overall view of what information is included in the text.
2. To read a textbook is to first go through reading the headlines, subheadings, and the callouts so that you know the major points of the chapter before you get to them.
3. Then go back and start reading details.
4. Write down in your book the definitions of any key terms you think are essential to understanding the topic.
5. Write down the questions and answers that you think will help clarify the topic.
6. Write questions for which you do not have the answers and then go back and find them by re-reading the chapter.
